III. AGENDA

A. ROCKLAND TRANSFER SITE RESOLUTION:

1. Councilman Jones invited the Board of County Commissioners to open discussion. Commissioner Funk explained the difficulties with the current location of the Rockland Transfer Site detailing the elements mandating a new location. Commissioner Anderson provided a rough outline of the new site parameters and explained that the new site would ideally consist of 2 acres. Commissioner Lasley reports that investing in rebuilding at the current location are not conducive due to space limitations and other elements. The entities solicited comments from the public and participated in joint discussion. Commissioner Funk suggested that the City appoint a committee to search out alternate locations and resolutions to the Commissions concerns. Councilman Parrish solicited volunteers from the public and the following were appointed to serve as the resolution committee;

- James McLean
- Mike Mathews

- John Robinson
- Paul Schmidt
- Commissioner Bill Lasley

In conclusion, Commissioner Funk reinforced the Commissions value in a continued partnership and the County's intent to keep services viable and work in mutual partnership with the community of Rockland.
